A COUPLE of sneak-thieves last night about 8 o'clock forced an entrance into the premises of Mr. F. Johanning's saloon, at No. 510 Race street, and were rummaging the bureaus when the wife of Mr. Johanning discovered the robbers. She immediately gave the alarm, and her husband and some other men pursued the thieves, who immediately made a run out of the doors. They left the bureau drawers in the yard, together with some of Mr. Johanning's clothing, which they had appropriated, and succeeded in making their escape. They are supposed to be the same parties who on Saturday evening broke into the boarding-house of Chas. Jahn, corner of Twellin and Walnut streets, where they obtained a breastpin worth $20, four gold rings, a small iron box containing $50, $5 in silver coin, and a meerschaum cigar-hulder.

Mr. Hilb is at work on a matter which has hitherto escaped the ligut. It seems that just previous to the laying of the pipe on Martin street which connects the new reservoir with the Front street pumping house, the city of St. Louis, through her Board of Water Commissioners, had purchased a large quantity of iron pipe for the extension of her stoners, had purchased a large quantity of iron pipe for the extension of her street service, which on trial had been condemned by the Inspector of the Board owing to the fact that the pipes were imperfectly cast, one side being a great deal heavier than the other. The pipe cost the St. Louis Commissioners $50 a ton.

EDITOR STAR: I wish through your columns to reter to the Euquirer's article of this morning, relative to my lecture last right at Bible Chapel. The article last right at Bible Chapel. The article does me great injustice, as it places my efforts in a false light before the people, and insinuates against truths which I feel it my duty to present, and which are worthy of the thoughtful and bonest attention of the world, as directed against a great evil, which is threatening to tradermine the foundations of your great country. The card which tollows it from "inquirer" is, in my opinion, manufactured from a communiopinion, manufactured from a communication in the Catholic Priot of Chicago of some time since, and containing in-situations of the vilest character against me, which are entirely untrue and with-out foundation, and a tissue of false-hoods. The proprietors of the Pilot are new indicted before the Courts of Chi-
